

YOUR INVITATION TO JOIN FRIENDS OF THE CAMPBELL LIBRARY

WHAT ARE THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

The Friends of the Campbell Library are a non-profit organization supporting library services in the city of Campbell. Through contributions, proceeds from regular book sales, and membership dues, the Friends acquire materials and services not covered by the library budget. The Friends are advocates for library services and a vital part of the library program.

FRIENDS MONEY IS USED TO SUPPORT

- Summer reading programs for children
- The purchase of special books and periodical subscriptions for the collection
- Events for children and young adults
- Many other special projects

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

- Help with the book sales and see ALL the GOOD books before the sale
- You will have an opportunity to meet new people
- It's a chance to learn more about your library and community
